Gallaudet University Press Institute Announces Its Next Conference

150 YEARS ON KENDALL GREEN
CELEBRATING DEAF HISTORY AND GALLAUDET

April 11-13, 2007
Kellogg Conference Hotel at
Gallaudet University, Washington, DC

Special GU Alumni early bird registration! Save 20%! Ends March 1, 2007!

KEYNOTE PRESENTERS:
James M. McPherson, 1989 Pulitzer Prize Winner
Professor Emeritus, Princeton University
Paddy Ladd, Director of Research Programmes,
University of Bristol
I. King Jordan, President Emeritus,
Gallaudet University

Gallaudet University Press Institute, the educational division of Gallaudet University Press, the Gallaudet Research Institute, the Laurent Clerc National Deaf Education Center, Gallaudet University Department of Government and History, Gallaudet University Department of Art, and Gallaudet University Archives will sponsor the international conference 150 Years on Kendall Green: Celebrating Deaf History and Gallaudet.

An exciting ensemble of distinguished scholars will present papers at this time of celebration and reflection of the history of the storied campus and its importance to Deaf history in the United States.

PRESENTERS INCLUDE:
Douglas Baynton
Lucille Blackwell
Lois Bragg and Diana Gates
Jessica Cuculick
Noah Drezner
Rebecca Edwards
Meredith Filatreault
Rachel Hartig
Sandra Jowers-Barber
Aaron Kelstone
Christopher Krentz
Christopher Kurz
Harlan Lane
Ulf Hedberg
David de Lorenzo
Joseph Murray
Kent Olney
Michael Olson
Lindsey Parker
Doris Stelle
Ronald Sutcliffe
Victor Vodounou

TOPICS:
• Intersection of Deaf Education and Immigration Policy
• Manifestations of Deafhood
• Women at Gallaudet
• Evolution of Deaf Theatre
• Gallaudet College and American Deaf Citizenship in Progressive-Era America
• Education of Deaf African Americans in Washington, DC
• THG/Alice Cogswell Statue Controversy

For more information and to register, go online to: http://gupress.gallaudet.edu/gupiconference/index_GUA.html